Jim: Yes, Sue, it's not cheap but it's big and light?

Sue: Does bus 18 go there?.

Jim: That's right, it takes fifteen minutes. But don't get bus 25 because you have to walk a long way.

Sue: I like doing sport early in the morning. Is it open at 7?

Jim: Yes, you can go there from 6, except on Sundays. Then it doesn't open until 9. The swimming pool has good, hot showers. You have to bring your own towel, but you can get soap there. And they don't make you wear a swimming hat.

Sue: Do they sell things to eat there?

Jim: Only sandwiches. They don't sell drinks. I usually take some fruit.

Sue: I'd love to go with you next week. How about Wednesday?

Jim: Well, I work until late on Wednesday. I'm free on Saturday, but it's too busy then. It will have to be Thursday.

Sue: Ok, see you then.

Friend: It will have. Only the clothes shops are open this month.

Anne: Well that's Ok, but it's at least 30 kilometres away and I haven't got a car.

Friend: Well, there is a coach once a week.

Anne: Is there? I can get that if it's not on Saturday. I have to work then.

Friend: It goes on Tuesday. But it's best to get your ticket on Monday.

Anne: Is the ticket expensive?

Friend: £ 10.80 for adults, £ 2.50 for children and only £ 5.60 for students like you.

Anne: Not bad! Does it go from the bus station?

Friend: Yes, and it stops in Market Square and outside the Museum in Broad Street.

Anne: Oh good, I'll get it there. Broad Street is really near my house. Does it leave early?

Friend: 9:20, and you get to the shopping centre 40 minutes later at 10 o'clock.

Choose the best answer (A, B or C) for each space, drag and drop it, or type the answer, or the corresponding letter, in the answer box.

Friend: I tried to phone you yesterday.

Diane: Oh, sorry. I was busy all day and then I went to London in the evening for a meal with some friends.

Friend: Did you take your car?

Diane: I left it at home. Parking's such a problem. But the underground was closed for repairs, so I had to take the bus. It was quite slow.

Friend: Did you go to your favourite Spanish restaurant?

Diane: I was hoping to try some Mexican food, but my friends booked a table in a Chinese place.

Friend: Was it expensive?

Diane: Quite cheap, actually, and the food was very good, but it's only a small restaurant so a lot of people had to wait for tables, and it was quite noisy.

Friend: You didn't stay there and talk afterwards, then?

Diane: We went for a walk along the river. It was too late for the cinema.

Friend: Didn't you get wet? It rained here all evening.

Diane: The wind was very cold, but it stayed dry.

Friend: And then it snowed during the night.

Diane: That was after I got home, but I had a really good evening.

Friend: Are your classes in the evening?

Philip: Yes. I finish at Park College at 5:15 and get home about 6:00. The lessons start at 6:45. I have just enough time to eat.

Friend: How much are they?

Philip: My ten-week course is usually £ 95, but it costs me £ 75 because I'm a student. There's also a five-week course for £ 55.

Friend: Is it a good course?

Philip: Yes, great! The cameras are rather old but my photos are much better now, so I'm really pleased. I'll never be a famous photographer though.

Friend: I think taking photographs is difficult.

Philip: Well, we did animals first and they're certainly not easy. But then we took pictures of trees, and that wasn't difficult. We'll photograph children next.

Friend: And after the course?

Philip: There aren't many jobs for photographers. It'll be my hobby. I can use my father's camera, but I'll have to buy a lot of film.
