Thank you for phoning. Park Zoo.

The zoo is open from Monday to Saturday, from 9 in the morning to 7.30 at night. And on Sundays from 10 to 5.

You can stay in the until one hour after closing time.

The zoo is north of the city centre and you should take the train to North Station. It is a 5-minute walk from there.

We have many interesting animals for you to see, but please note the Elephant House will not be open on 3rd May. I'm sorry, but you can't see the elephants that day.

When you come make sure you visit the zoo shop. There you can buy books, postcards and T-shirts.

Everyone will want to wear a zoo T-shirt.

An adult ticket costs £ 10, a children's ticket £ 5 and a family ticket £ 12.

We hope you enjoy your visit to the zoo.

Hi Mum. This is Susanna.

I know you're going shopping this afternoon. Can you get something for me?

I need a white T-shirt for the school tennis match tomorrow. We all have to wear white, and I haven't got one.

You can get them in Daveys, that's... D – A – V – E – Y – S. It's a new shop in the High Street.

It's not far from the car park. You can go there before you go to the supermarket.

You know the cinema: well, it's next to that. It's easy to find.

There are three sizes: small, medium and large. My old one was a small, but I'm a lot bigger now. So could you buy me a large one, please?

I hope you can get it. I can't play in the match without it.

It's not expensive. It only costs £ 8.99 I'll give you the money tonight.

Thanks a lot, Mum! See you later. Bye.

You will hear some information about a visitor to a school.

Listen and complete the questions given. Type your answers in the answer box.

*Now listen carefully everybody: here are some excellent news.
Next Thursday a most interesting visitor is going to come to talk to us.
He's the astronaut, Dr Robert Teale. That's T – E – A – L – E.
I'm sure a lot of you have heard of him. He's very famous for his journeys into space.
He's going to talk to us about space travel. Only he can tell us just what it's like to travel round the Earth in a spaceship, past the Moon and the stars.
The whole school is going to listen to Dr Teale.
We will use the School Hall because none of the classrooms will be big enough.
Classes will finish at twenty past two, on Thursday, because the talk will start at half past.
Don't be late!
If your parents would like to hear Dr Teale, we have a few extra seats. The ticket price for them will be £ 3.85, but, of course, for students it is free.*

You will hear some information about Finchester Zoo.

Listen and complete the questions given. Type your answers in the answer box.

*Thank you for calling Finchester Zoo!
The Zoo is open on six days and closed on Mondays.
The opening hours are from 10 a.m. until it gets dark. This is 9.30 in the summer and 4 o'clock in the winter.
There is a guided tour of the zoo every hour. Visitors for the tour should wait at the entrance, which is where the tour begins. Our guide will meet you there.
The tour finishes at the café.
You should not feed the animals, but you can watch when we give them something to eat.
Every day at 2 o'clock the lions are given their food, and the elephants get theirs at 3 o'clock.
There is a shop in the Zoo where you can buy books and games.
All the family will like playing these.
There is also a café which sells snacks.
Tickets for adults cost £ 6.85, and children's tickets are £ 4.65. A family ticket for two adults and three children is £ 18.75.

You will hear a tour guide talking about a town in Scotland.

Listen and complete the questions given. Type your answers in the answer box.

Good morning! Welcome to Scotland!

I hope you had a good journey and you're not too tired this morning.

My name is Jim and I am here to help you.

I want to tell you a few things which you might find useful.

Firstly, the banks. They are open from 9.30 in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. That's 9.30 until 4. They are open every day except Sunday. But on Sundays you can change money in the hotel.

Next, the buses. You can take a bus from the hotel to the city centre. It's the number 21.

There are buses every 15 minutes so you won't have to wait long.

You'll find the bus stop just outside the hotel.

A ticket to the City centre costs 60 p.

Finally, tonight we're having a party for you in the restaurant.

I hope I'll see you all there.

Thank you!

You will hear some information about a farm.

Listen and complete the questions given. Type your answers in the answer box.

This weekend why not visit Park Farm in the lovely village of Newhampton, for a day in the country that the whole family will enjoy?

Come and see the farm animals, go for a walk across the fields and take the children to the mini-zoo.

Afterwards, you can look around the gift shop, or have a snack or a drink in the Black Cat tea room.

From the tea room you can watch your children playing outside.

Park Farm is open every day from 10.30 in the morning to 5 o'clock in the evening.

An adult ticket costs £ 6, and children between 3 and 16 pay £ 4. But you can save money with a family ticket which costs £ 17.

Dogs are not allowed on the farm, so please leave your dog at home.

To find Park Farm, follow the signs in the village. The farm is very near to the river.

We look forward to seeing you soon at Park Farm.

And now, in this part of the programme we try to put people in contact with their old school friends.

So, if you remember any of these people, and you want to see them again, then listen carefully.

Right, now the first person this morning is Janet Craig. That's spelt C – R – A – I – G, and I'll give you her telephone number in a minute or so.

Janet said she was at Green Park School in South London for six happy years, and she wants to meet all her old friends again.

She started at the school in 1984 and she was very sorry when she left to get a job in 1990.

So, if you were at Green Park School between those dates, then please phone Janet. She's waiting to hear from you.

And her number is 587634. That's 587634.

I'm sure you'll have lots to talk about.
